NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS.

Democrats of Nebraska will hold their platform convention in Grand Island tomorrow, and it promises to be of greater interest than any gathering of the kind held in that state for many years. That there will be a contest to secure a county option plank in the platform is admitted by every leader in the organization.

William J. Bryan, for the first time since he took up the leadership of the democratic party, will be opposed by former associates within his own state. The fight for and against county option has become an open one. Mr. Bryan and his friends are actively engaged in an attempt to secure a county option plank, while Congressman Hitchcock and Mayo James C. Dahlman, both of Omaha, supported by Governor Shallenberger, are equally active in an effort to secure a declaration against such a plank.

The situation is considered an unusual one, because the men who at present are actively opposing Mr. Bryan were formerly his strongest supporters. This conditions considered with the fact that the campaign for the selection of a state ticket and the recommending of a candidate for United States senator has taken on many different angles, has given impetus to the political struggle in Nebraska never before witnessed.

Declining Health of Monarchs.

London, July 25.—Europe is beginning to worry seriously over the health of three of her rulers—Kaiser Franz Josef, of Austria; Kaiser Wilhelm, of Germany, and King Alfonso, of Spain. Franz Josef is breaking down from old age. The slightest exertion exhausts him and he frequently has lapses of consciousness. At best, courtiers feel that his death is only a matter of a few more months. It is an open secret that Wilhelm's recent complaint of a "boil on the wrist," was really a serious matter. His blood, it is said, has been tainted from his birth, as is evidenced by his withered and useless left arm, and the alarming abscess of the left ear from which he constantly suffers. His former high spirits have given way to melancholy and depression, to an alarming extent. Alfonso, like Wilhelm, suffers from a painful malady of the ear, which Dr. Moore, the famous Bordeaux specialist, has tried vainly for more than a year to relieve. Alfonso's ear trouble, like the Kaiser's recent ailment, however, is unquestionably a symptom of general disorganization in the blood. He seems to be a man whose health as well as nerves have collapsed completely.

LORE REINCARNATED BOY.

Sarah Van Allen Murray and W. John Murray, who are in themselves the Church of the Healing Christ, are going to lose their little divine, the reincarnation of David, king of the Jews. Vice Chancellor Howell, of the New Jersey court of chancery, at Trenton, so decreed yesterday when he ordered the joint plaintiffs to return the reincarnation of the great psalmist to St. Mary's orphanage of East Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Murray and W. John Murray, her husband, say that this decision of the court in the suit, brought in the name of Miss Amy W. Mason, of the orphanage board, is but another stroke of the malicious animal magnetism that has been shifted their way by Mary Baker Eddy, Mrs. Augusta W. Stetson and several other heads of the Christian Science Church since the Murphys withdrew from that sect some years ago.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

A property loss of nearly $2,000,000, fifty families rendered homeless, and the threatened destruction of hundreds of buildings was the result of two great fires which swept over the northwestern part of Chicago yesterday.

The Northwestern Malt and Grain Company's plant, the largest malting concern in the world, at Forty-sixth avenue and Cortlandt street, was damaged to the extent of $1,500,000, and the brewery of Charles F. Ogden & Co., extending from Oakley avenue to Leavitt street on Division avenue was completely destroyed with a loss of nearly $500,000.

Both fires were said to be the direct result of the torrid wave which swept over the city from the southwest, being the highest temperature of the year, and causing explosions of grain dust in both plants.

The fire in the Northwest Malt and Grain Company's plant broke out at noon with a terrible explosion in the grain elevator, and before any attempt could be made to check the flames the huge building was a mass of fire. The burning embers were carried for blocks by the high wind, setting fire to a score of cottages and residences in the vicinity.

While the fire department was bending every effort toward extinguishing the fire at Cragin, the Ogden brewery at Division and Oakley avenues became the scene of the second great fire of the day from identically the same cause as

ESCAPE FROM BLAZING YACHT.

A sailing party on the gasoline yacht Wissahickon, owned by A. Gilbert Longaker, of Philadelphia, had a thrilling experience late Saturday night on the Nanticoke river, five miles from Federalsburg, Md., which nearly cost several of them their lives, the boat taking fire from a leak. Mr. Longaker, accompanied by his son Horace and his brother Hiram, made up a party to take a cruise down the river. A spark from the engine ignited the fluid and in a flash flames shot along the line of the pipe. The women screamed and became panic-stricken. Only six of the party could swim. The fire gained rapid headway. Two of the girls jumped overboard. Albert McClure, of Baltimore, a good swimmer, leaped after them and saved both in twenty feet of water. The men in the boat held the other young women from throwing themselves overboard. Meanwhile, the engineer, his clothing partly aflame, stuck to his post and drove the boat closer in shore. The young women took off their outer skirts, and the men used their coats and the skirts to fight back the flames. When shallow water was reached all jumped overboard and waded ashore. Several of the girls were overcome by shock and fright.

MONROE DOCTRINE SHELVED.

Attempts made privately by the Brazilian delegates to the Pan-American Congress now in session at Buenos Ayres, to extend the Monroe Doctrine as a new declaration of all the American nations seem not to have had a favorable reception there. The Argentine delegates do not oppose the Monroe Doctrine but they do not desire to modify the program by the introduction of complicated questions. Although Dr. de la Plaza, the Argentine foreign minister, has praised the doctrine, the chancellery of the Argentine Republic seems not to be disposed to favor an extension of the doctrine in a form which might arouse the susceptibilities of European nations. The American delegates are desirous not to disavow the initiative of other countries, but in case a proposition is submitted to extend the Monroe Doctrine they will not vote, being anxious above all to avoid discords in the conference.
